

GOLF TOURNEY AT COUNTRY CLUB

Number of Entries Total 107, Including Four From Out of Town.

With the exception of a light wind which only slightly affected the play, ideal conditions prevailed at the opening of the annual spring golf tournament at the Washington Country Club when the players started on the qualification round at eight o'clock this morning. The green committee has been working steadily on the course for the past few months and it has never been in better shape. Several changes have been made since the last event, the most important being the rearrangement of the fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth holes.

Walter R. Thompson, Wilcox Tucker, and Morris Thompson and Allan Lard, four of Washington's best disc players, are among the entrants, but with the exception of this quartet, all of the other better players have sent in their names, as have four out-of-town ones, the list totaling up to 107.

Considering that this is the first local event and that many of the players have not yet had time to get on to their names, the scores turned in this morning are comparatively good, but no idea can be gotten as to the probable winner, as many of the best players are either still out or have not yet started.

Pairings for Match Play.

The qualification round will end this evening at 6 o'clock and tomorrow's pairings made for match play, the first rounds of each sixteen being on the morning's card, with the second rounds on for the afternoon, leaving the semifinal and final rounds for Saturday. In addition, on Saturday the usual handicap event is announced for players who are not on that day competing at match play, entries for this event closing Saturday morning.

The tournament committee has introduced something new in this year's event with respect to the prizes, and this tournament is the only local one ever held in which every prize is a silver loving cup, a variety of trophies usually being offered. These prizes are now on exhibition at the clubhouse, where they are attracting no end of attention.

The following scores had been turned in at 2 o'clock today:
